THE ALLDERDICE

Volume XI

Published Jointly by Seniors of the January and June Classes of 1940

The Taylor Allderdice High School
Shady and Forward Avenues
Pittsburgh, Pa.

Foreword

IN COMPILING this book we have endeavored to present a complete record of the activities of the class of 1940 and to present to the entire student body a representative picture of Allderdice. It is our hope that in the years to come this book will serve as a pleasant memento of our high school days.

Dedication

SOON ANOTHER class will become part of the vast number of students who compose the Allderdice Alumni. That group typifies American youth. It consists of those who possess ambition, hope, and that ability to think for themselves which springs from a democratic education. Therefore to those students who have preceded us and to the many millions of youth who are their counterpart we thoughtfully dedicate this book.

Betty Abercrombie

In aviation stars blonde Betty
Who for sports is always ready;
Her choice of career? Well, we can't just say,
But she'll be trying every single day.

Social Committee; Girl Reserves; Biology; Senior Aviation; Volleyball '39.

Ruth Barish

Although Ruth is a quiet lass,
She gets along in every class;
In art she finds her greatest pleasure,
And in this work she gives full measure.

Senior Class Revue; Volleyball Team '38; Soccer Team '38.

Loretta Bogardus

A quiet girl who does not shirk;
She never fails to do her work.
From her you seldom hear a sound,
But we all know Loretta's around.

Hall Patrol; Business Service Guild; Entered from Gladstone in February 1938.

George Cain

Flying 'way up in an airplane—
Who's the fellow? Why, it's George Cain;
He loves to fly, to swing, to sway,
His favorite leader is Sammy Kaye.

Junior Leaders Club; Junior Basketball '36, '37; Class President 12A; Entered from Mifflin; Favorite Sports—Football, Basketball, Baseball.

John Chorney

"Junchy" plays the harmonica grand,
And in all athletics he deserves a big hand;
He hates all night work and likes having money,
Here's hoping his path will be shining and sunny.

Business Service Guild; Entered from Gladstone; Junior Life Saving '36, '37; Favorite Sport—Swimming.

Lucille Cohen

Whenever there's typing to be done
Look around for Lucille—she's the one;
A capable secretary she'll be some day,
With her courteous air and pleasing way.

Journal Staff; Foreword Staff; Business Service Guild; Bulletin; Hall Patrol; Senior Type Club; Penmanship Club: Sigma Iota; Volleyball '39; National Honor Society.

Anita Coller

A gay and happy young miss is she,
In school she loves all fun and glee;
Journalism she plans for her future career,
We wish her success year after year.

Senior Class Revue; Journal Staff; A. A. A.; Foreword Representative; President 78B; At Your Service Club; Latin Club; Sigma Iota; Debate Club; Dramatic Club; Safety Driving; Hockey Team '38.

Helen DePaolo

In every class there's someone
On whom you can depend
To help you at a time of need—
Well, Helen's that type of friend.

Lunch Patrol '37, '38, '39; Red Cross Club; Chemistry Assistant Club; Senior Leaders Club; Group A; Soccer '38, '39; Volleyball '38, '39; Captain of Championship Hockey Team two successive years; National Honor Society.

Kathryn DeStout

Dark and cute is black-haired Kate,
And for orchestra music she's ready bait;
She makes her friends with charm and ease,
A girl like her we are eager to please.

Entered from Gladstone Junior High School; Hockey '38, '39; Basketball '38, '39; Favorite Sport—Basketball.

John Findlay

Small in stature, broad in mind,
A boy like Johnny is hard to find;
We're very fond of his bashful ways,
Whatever he does, it always pays.

Group A; Male Chorus; Sport Club; Entered from Mifflin; Favorite Sports —Baseball, Football.

Samuel Freed

Sammy's a very quiet boy,
His teachers he never does annoy;
He'll find his place in the world of men
As the same quiet fellow he's always been.

Foreword Representative; Hall Patrol; Student Council; Sigma Iota; Stamp Club; Group B.

Lois Gallagher

Blue-eyed Lois is studious and gay,
We enjoy so much seeing her everyday;
She likes athletics and loves taking gym,
To be a private secretary is her favorite whim.

Business Service Guild; Hockey Team '39.

Naomi Gibbons

Naomi Gibbons is one of the lasses
Whom teachers appreciate most in their classes;
She's quiet, serene, and always on hand,
Her cheerful good nature's forever in demand.

Hall Patrol; Business Service Guild; Entered from Gladstone Junior High School '38.

Margaret Hazi

"Miss Hazi, Miss Hazi, please come here,"
It's the voice of her employer ringing in her ear;
Margy's the perfect secretary, we do perceive,
And once she gets her position she'll never have to leave.

Foreword Representative; Sigma Iota; Entered from Gladstone in 11B; Favorite Sport—Basketball.

Dora Hendrix

A newcomer to 153 is this lass,
She's been a happy addition to the class;
She made her mark, she won her way,
We're very glad she came here to stay.

Hall Patrol; Entered from Gladstone; Senior Art; Voice B; Volleyball; Hockey '38.

Jean Henry

She's very shy, she's quite demure,
We all respect her, of that I'm sure;
Jean does her tasks with a happy face,
In her we find true charm and grace.

Student Council; Hall Patrol; Activity Representative; Penmanship Club; Safety Driving; Girl Reserves; Voice Group B; Volleyball '39.

Florence Ruth Holzer

"Gosh, oh, gosh," is Flossie's favorite saying;
And does she go for Hal Kemp's orchestra playing!
She'd love to dance on and on forever,
At dancing her stopping point is never.

Senior Class Revue; Hall Patrol; Business Service Guild; Dodge Ball '37.

A. Albert Karmia

There's nothing that's too much for him,
This lad who's always full of vim;
His hearty voice is good to hear,
And can be heard afar and near.

Senior Class Revue; Foreign Policy Club; Favorite Sports — Baseball, Basketball.

Katherine Kazmier

Kate Kazmier is quite small and sweet,
A pal she'll be to all she'll meet.
She's good in all sports, especially in swimming,
In the Olympics she's sure to give all a nice trimming.

Sigma Iota; Entered from Gladstone in 11A; Favorite Sport—Swimming.

Alfred Kennedy

A hero in football,
In baseball, too;
We know that he'll succeed
In all he tries to do.

Hall Patrol; Entered from Central Catholic High; Sports Club; Football '38, '39.

Emily G. Klaman

Emily's shy and as carefree as the breeze;
She goes through school with charm and ease;
She loves helping out as much as she can—
A secretarial position is her future plan.

Foreword Staff; Business Service Guild; Bulletin Staff; Journal Staff; Service Club; Sigma Iota; Psychology; Volleyball '36; Favorite Sport—Baseball.

Lilyan Lang

Lilyan is quite tiny and petite,
And all will admit she's very sweet;
A real pal she's been to all of us,
She does her work without any fuss.

Psychology Club; Library Club; Sigma Iota; Safety Driving.

Geraldine Lois Lange

Gerry loves good frolic and fun,
For any good time she's ready to run;
She's liked a great deal by all her mates,
And with all who know her she really rates.

Book Room; Hall Patrol; Biology; Sigma Iota; Volleyball.

Jack D. Levin

Jackie is a ladies' man,
He gets his lessons when he can;
A player is he in the band,
And everywhere Jack is in demand.

Foreword Reporter; Book Room; Dramatic Club; Band A '37, '38, '39.

Ralph Lloyd Levin

A grand sport in all he does is Ralph Levin,
To his teachers he's simply a gift from heaven;
He does all his work with a cheerful smile,
But his time is well spent in fun meanwhile.

Senior Class Revue; Journal Staff; Foreword Representative; Lunch Patrol; Treasurer 12B-12A; Dramatic Club; Band A; Sports '37, '38.

Eleanor Ethyl Levine

Eleanor Levine is a quiet lass,
She's never noisy in the class;
She's a pal that everyone should meet
And for true friendship she can't be beat.

Hall Patrol; Business Service Guild; Dodge Bat Ball.

June A. Levine

June's full of fun you just can bet,
She's snappy, too, and never blue,
Full of pep, she has a rep
Of being honest, clever, true.

Business Service Guild '39; Senior Class Revue; Volleyball '38.

Ruth Levine

A loyal classmate to the end,
Admired by one and all;
And if one needs a real true friend,
On Ruthie one should call.

Hall Patrol; Dressing Dolls for Charity; Volleyball '38.

James Lindenburg

Jimmy's one of those we know
Who doesn't try to make a show;
At things he likes, he works quite well;
He'll make his mark as time will tell.

Favorite Sport—Baseball.

Betty Louise Lloyd

Honey likes dancing and singing the best,
And when she does these she never needs rest;
She hopes to join up with some really good band,
Her fame will someday spread throughout the land.

Craft; Doll Dressing for Charity; Favorite Sport—Baseball.

Edward Robert Lowry

Eddie Lowry is another one
Who thinks that life is just for fun;
Work and Eddie just don't agree,
But he'll get along—wait and see.

Lunch Patrol; Entered from Gladstone; Art Club; Group A; Male Chorus; Gym Team '38.

Ethel M. Lubin

Ethel is a lovely girl,
At least we take that view;
And if you ever know her once
You'll really know it's true.

Senior Revue; Hall Patrol '39; Driving Club '39; Transferred from Peabody '38; Volleyball '38.

Dorothy Mintz

She's fond of music; she's in Orchestra B,
She likes chewing gum, as we can see;
She's cheerful and sweet throughout the day,
She looks at all with a smile that's gay.

Craft Club; Sigma Iota; Psychology Club; Safety Driving Club; Orchestra B.

Burton Unger

Burt is jolly, never sad,
Never known to have been bad;
He's one who can easily make a friend,
And a helping hand he's willing to lend.

June 1939 Class Play; Hall Patrol; Microscope Club; Biology Club; Sigma Iota; Driving; Football Manager '38, '39.

John Walik

Johnny is bold and happy-go-lucky,
In everything he does he's terribly plucky;
He hates grouchy people, but loves aviation,
And in this field he desires to find his vocation.

Sport Club 12A; Electric Club; Hall Patrol; Favorite Sports—Football and Golf.

David White

Cheerful and jolly Dave always seems,
In basketball and tennis he's on both teams;
He claims with force that girls he hates,
But with the fair sex he always rates.

Arthur Wiesenthal

Arthur is a man of science,
And at defeat he hurls defiance;
As a doctor we know he'll succeed,
To him we shall go for all human need.

Senior Class Revue; Journal Staff; Student Council; Lunch Patrol; Debate Club; Foreign Policy Club; Dramatic Club; Tennis Team '39.

Victor Willem

Green-eyed Vic loves stamps and girls,
His school life's been a series of whirls;
He aims at law, we understand;
His fame's sure to spread throughout the land.

Hall Patrol; Junior Mechanics; Arithmetic; Sportsman Club; Gymnastics; Football '38.

Marilyn Wolovitz

Marilyn is gay and full of fun,
She has a way with every one;
She's made quite a hit in 153,
And her future good luck we do foresee.

Business Service Guild; Penmanship Club; Driving Club; Sigma Iota; Basketball '38.

SILLY SENIOR SONNET

There are so many creatures on this earth
Whose queerness makes them subject for the zoo,
That most of us don't know the one best worth
Our laughs, because he's not a kangaroo.
He has much work to do and does it not
Because he says child labor is unfair.
He loves to dance and likes his music "hot"
And seems to like the crazy clothes he'll wear.
His knowledge is sufficient for his life,
He understands the women of his time;
He shaves with doubtful skill to him quite new.
With elders he is usually at strife,
And never seems to have a single dime.
This silly freak is real—a senior true.

Doris Goldstein

When it comes to public speaking, any audience she'll sway,
She's adept at auto driving for she knows the safest way.
And when it comes to choice cuisine, she knows her stuff and how,
So you'd like to meet the lady? Doris Goldstein, take a bow!

Hall Patrol; Lunch Patrol; Safety Driving Club.

Allen Hazley

He can hit a bull's eye any time with a rifle or a smile.
His friendship is considered by quite a few worthwhile.
There's plenty more that we could say but space is much too short.
The lad is Allen Hazley, a through and through good sport.

Rifle Club; Favorite Sport—Football.

Vivian Alma Jones

Her pianistic repertoire's complete from Liszt to Granger,
And in the field of sports you'll find she's certainly no stranger.
At every prom she's followed by a swarm of handsome drones,
And lucky is the lad who gets a dance with Vivian Jones.

Mildred Spichty

A champion in everything, assignments always done,
In work or sports she always plays the game.
458 is justly proud of all the fame she's won;
You've guessed it, Mildred Spichty is her name.

Journal Staff; Student Council; Vice President 459; President of Room 458; Volleyball '37, '38; Championship Soccer Team '37; Championship Hockey Team '38, '39; Basketball '38; Mushball '38.

Aida Terramani

If you hear us praise Aida, the opera we do not mean,
But a charming Miss we've seen on hall patrol;
She has friends enough and plenty to satisfy a queen,
And Aida Terramani fits that role.

Hall Patrol; Lunch Patrol; Type Club; Volleyball Team '38; Favorite Sport—Volleyball.

Marion Tiedeman

There's a quiet little lady with a charming page boy bob
Although she doesn't say a lot, she's always on the job.
She's been a faithful treasurer, the whole semester through
Thank you, Marion Tiedeman, our hats are off to you.

Treasurer; Typing Club; Favorite Sport—Skating.

Virginia Vale

Virginia Vale is noted for her fancy roller skating
And in the art of making friends, she holds an A plus rating;
In spite of all the friends she has, in truth it must be said
That being popular didn't go to Jinny's curly head.

Hall Patrol; Favorite Sport—Roller Skating.

Gladys Elizabeth Virts

This little girl's petite and blonde and definitely pretty;
The bounds of truth we're not beyond in claiming that she's witty.
A jitterbug that's "on the go" from morning until night,
It's Gladys Virts and we all know that she is "Well, all right."

Journal Staff; Sigma Iota; Volleyball '38, '39.

Virginia Whitehouse

As lovely a girl as you'll find in a week
Of searching the school throughout;
She's pretty and blonde and charmingly chic,
It's Virginia Whitehouse without a doubt.

Hall Patrol; Business Service Guild; Foreword Representative; Basketball Team '38; Favorite Sport—Swimming.

Robert Witt

This handsome blond Adonis is a sight that's really grand,
In a uniform that's quite the perfect fit.
And unnumbered are the co-eds that crowd around the band,
Not for music, but a glimpse of Robert Witt.

Hall Patrol; Vice President; Short Wave Club; Band A, President; Favorite Sport—Basketball.

Charles Yurkew

He's lightning on the "up take," and his repartee is snappy;
He's got a knack of making, and keeping people happy;
He's also very handsome, and by all it is agreed,
That Charles Yurkew is one lad who's going to succeed.

Hall Patrol; Debate Club; Favorite Sport—Basketball.

THE PINE

What memories I get from thee,
Oh tall and handsome pine!
Oh memories of realities,
That once so true were mine.

Neath thy youthful trunk we planned
A life so strong and bold;
Yet see me now, oh handsome pine,
A man so bent and old.

While you have ever upward gone
I have missed my aim;
Nature's ways are mostly best
For men are all the same.

A tree from cone so small you've grown,
A tree for all to see.
While I am just an old bent man
A dreamer . . . yes, that's me.

THE HOURGLASS

Rippling flow of crystal sand
Constant motion, to and fro,
And in passing, marks the hour
Keeping time in man's behest;
Never resting shifting grain
Free, yet trapped to do man's will,
Pouring down, an endless stream
Visioned through protecting glass.
Rustic in its outward view
Ancient in its style and use,
This the marker of the age
Now at rest beneath the dust.
With the passing of this glass
In the rush of modern time,
We have lost a tireless friend
Representing former dreams.
Swiftly moving present life
Frowns upon this ancient clock;
Now adorning antique shelf
Where its sand-like heart must rest.

I'd call her fair if she had hair
Like Margaret Nettleton;
I would cherish her name if she had a frame
Like Margy Palley.
She'd be just right if she were the height
Of Jean Rigaumont.
I'd do as she begs for a girl with legs
Like Peggy Fixel.
I'd sit in chains for a girl with brains
Like Doris Brennan."

Speaking for the girls:

"I'd idolize a boy with eyes
Like Harrison Levy.
I'd not call him weak
If he had a physique
Like Herby Venzer.
I'd darn his hose if he had a nose
Like Rollin Davis.
I really could care for a boy with hair
Like Bob Whiteside.
He'd be my kind if he had a mind
Like Robert Tobe.
He'd be worthwhile if he had a smile
Like Teddy Macosko."

ROOM 255

Through the many walks of life
May they choose the best;
Ever honest as they move
In their life-work's quest.

Let them have some work to do,
Something fine to yearn;
Let them labor fruitfully
Their ideal to earn.

With success, let them look back,
Back upon this year,
And recall a friend or two
And their joys so dear.

Live that you may learn to live,
And ever join life's fight;
God o'er head and heart within,
Guide your steps aright.

CLASS WILL

We, the members of Room 256, hereby, solemnly will and bequeath to our successors and heirs:

(1) Miss Dorothy Zeigler, our homeroom teacher, patient, good-natured and a friend to all.

(2) The "doodles" on the desks whereby the departing scribes eased their nerves during the tension of class ordeals.

(3) The books with our original footnotes which will prove more informative than any new textbook issued.

(4) The area immediately tangent to the entrance, where none or rather some of the aforesaid members of 256 did give an exhibition of "jitterbug" dancing excelled by none.

(5) The aisles between the chairs in the back of the room, and the aisle in the middle of the room where various aforesaid members of Room 256 passed enroute to the office.

(6) Lastly, we bequeath the motto of Allderdice, Know Something, Do Something, Be Something which has been our guiding light throughout the happy years spent here.

Executed this Nineteenth day of June, in the year of our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Forty.

STUDY

At her watch she keeps a-looking;
At her book she throws a frown;
Then she takes her rouge and lipstick,
Puts it on when no one's 'round.

I think I deserve a medal
I think I'm pretty bold
For all these years I've gone to school
I've never minded the cold (much).

SMOOTHIE

He never made the honor roll
Perhaps he isn't smart;
But he's the guy who always rates
In every senior's heart.

"Now, boys and girls," the teacher said,
"I'll put you on your honor";
And so she walked outside the room
And peeped around the corner.

So now that you're acquainted
With our punsters and scholars,
There's very little wonder
That we wouldn't trade them for
One Million Dollars.

ROOM 263

Broadcast about 263
Over station XYZ
In the year 1953,
Commentator, Rosenbloom—Naturally!

"Super" Salisbury is selling cars
That easily drive from here to Mars.
Weekly appearances of Professor Tobe
In chemistry analysis and engineering probe.

Adelyne Roth and Alma Fay Spann
Are starring in a play
Produced and directed by
Stanley Swartz—they say.

Arthur Clarke and Stanley Ziff
Are working on a remedy
For everything that may be wrong
From cancer to an appendectomy.

Brenda and Cobina have definitely
Lost their stand
It seems that Kwall and Levy now
Have the upper hand.

We mustn't overlook now,
That startling "killer-diller"
Photographer on crime—only
"Bertie" Miller.

Louise Saul's program on the air
Is reported doing mighty fair;
And take it from one who knows
Mussoff, Rose and Rabinowitz have the shows.

The new paper, Henderson's Pride
Seems to be on the delightful side
It's edited by Jacobson, Whiteside and Mills
Sponsored by Sheppard's Little Appetite Pills.

Menk and Mothersole, in their new book on Fuss
Have proved again their great worth to us.

And now, my friends, for more details
See your paper and help our sales.

In this unassuming porridge.
It hits the spot for it's so swell,
And, of course, we mean our George.

Orchestra A; Intramural Volleyball; Favorite Sport—Basketball.

Norma Stroje

Pare joy, cut cheer, add gladness,
Then mix it while it cooks,
But don't forget ambition,
And there you have our "Snooks".

Make-up Class Play; Lunch Patrol; Make-up Club; Devotional Leader in Home Room; Orchestra A; Mushball '37; Swimming '38; Volleyball Manager '39.

If men could be compared to food,
And flavored, good or bad,
And ordered just to suit one's taste,
To make that person glad;
Then in our room of 304
Our menu would please all,
For blended here each single one
Has virtue great or small.

NIGHTMARES

When I was just a little tot,
And I would go to bed,
I couldn't sleep without a light,
The dark—how I did dread!
For oft' when I would close my eyes
And waken in the night,
I'd look around, to my surprise
I'd see the weirdest sight;
For the elfins, imps, and goblins there
Gave me a fearful fright.

And then I'd dive beneath the sheets,
(The sight I could not bear),
But in a moment, inch by inch
I'd rise to see what's there;
I'd bolt upright and listen well,
My eyes would open wide,
And to my sheer astonishment
A festival I spied!
And as I watched the goblins feast
The witches by would ride.

They ate and danced and shrieked and screamed,
They circled 'round and 'round;
Still on and on, of them I dreamed,
My bedroom throbbed with sound;
My window opened, more filed in,
The masses grew and grew,
And there I saw the devils grin
And mix old Pluto's brew;
They drank and laughed, the din increased
And echoed through and through.

Still wilder, wilder they whirled by!
"They're coming close!" I'd fear,
But then with an exulting cry
Each one would disappear;
And as I was alone again,
(They, all, had gone away),
I'd rub my eyes and look around,
"It's just a dream," I'd say;
And then I'd go to sleep again
Until the break of day.

And still, although the years have passed
And I have older grown,
Sometimes I dream those same weird dreams
When I am home alone;
And then I think back through the years
When I was very young,
I wonder, "Where from all this earth
Those awful nightmares come?
And why must they appear at night
And never with the sun?"

Many, many years ago, freshies all were we;
We stepped into this big school to see what we could see.
We saw the seniors towering high; the teachers, grim and stern,
But we were little freshies then and we had lots to learn.
Time marched on; the freshies grew and seniors they became;
And all the freshies followed them and were frightened just the same.

Phyllis L. Charie "Goodness Knows."

Since I wrote the "poetry" for this class,
To sign my name is all I ask.

Program; Journal Staff; Social Security; Les Amis Francais; Le Cercle Francais de Victor Hugo; Basketball '38.

MRS. SMITH'S WITS

A Census Taker Visits 454

And he finds that:

The Favorite Hobby is Dancing.

The Average Girl:

Has brown hair, brown eyes,
Weighs 114 lb.,
Is 5 ft. 3 in. tall,
Likes boys very much,
Thinks girls are all right in their place,
Wears skirts, sweaters, saddle shoes exclusively.

The Average Boy:

Has brown hair and eyes,
Weighs 160 lb.,
Towers 5 ft. 9 in.,
Wears no tie but a loud tie.

The favorite orchestra is Glenn Miller.
The favorite teacher is Mrs. Smith.
Swimming is the sport most liked.
The Pet Peeve of the fellows is long red fingernails.
Chewing gum is the most indulged-in exercise.
The instrument all students play is the radio.
That most members take up time and space.
That evenings are spent doing home work.
The greatest ambition is to graduate.
All future secretaries want to marry the boss.
The school system should be drastically changed.
That girls' gym suits are anti-dated.
That despite all objections we have had fun.

Geometry Theorem

Given: I love you
To prove: That you love me
Proof:

1. I love you.
2. Therefore, I am a lover.
3. All the world loves a lover.
4. You are all the world to me.
5. Therefore, you love me.

THE FREEBLE MINDS

A Toast to 461—
Here's to the students of 461
May they have many happy days
And realize all their ambitions.

IRONY

I'm through with school and never again
Will have to write a theme;
So now I thought of a subject that
I'm sure would bring a beam.

Oh, to be a senior
It always was my hope;
Now that I have this honor
With it I cannot cope.

I wanted to be on the Journal Staff;
I wanted to be in the play;
I have my wish and now I laugh
Because I need a longer day.

SENIORS

We've worried, copied, hooked and crammed
We've even studied, too.
But now that we are leaving
We're sorry that we're through.

Goodbye to Tuesday programs
With their helpful guidance talks;
Goodbye to the "police force,"
Who interrupted walks.

Farewell to the dear old lunch room,
And spaghetti every day.
So long to dashes down the hall
With freshies in the way.

Farewell to thee, dear Alma Mater,
And now that we are done
We really hate to leave you
For we've had a lot of fun—
And anyway College is much harder.

ATHLETICS

SPORTSMANSHIP

THE DEVELOPMENT of a true and wholesome character is the aim of competitive athletics. The following code was set up by the Sportsmanship Brotherhood:

Keep the rules;
Keep faith with your comrades;
Keep your temper;
Keep yourself fit;
Keep your pride under in victory;
Keep a sound soul, a clean mind, and a healthy body.

A coach endeavors to teach these rules, but he can do little unless the player himself cooperates. Sportsmanship is, after all, living the golden rule. It is not so much what you know but what you do that counts. Character is caught, not taught; and, in the opinion of many, the coach, through athletics, is in a better position than any other person to instill this into the youth of our nation.

The business world needs more sportsmanship. The spirit of competition dominates the field of industry as it does the field of sports. You of the graduating class will find that business success is not solely an accumulation of wealth, any more than the prize won is the most valuable result of the game played. Success is the prize plus the satisfaction of having rightfully earned it. It is the fun and happiness derived from any game which makes a prize possible, that determines the real measure of success achieved. In order that our boys and girls may become true sportsmen in business and develop the right attitude of mind toward business, they must continue the training and rules which they have followed in their athletic days. Absolute obedience to the rules of the game, quick thinking, and determination are a few of the qualities built out of competitive sports that are necessary for success. The real value of sportsmanship is brought out only when we realize the importance of developing a team spirit. True character is best expressed in the manner in which victory is won and defeat is accepted.

Being a "good sport" is not a matter of definition or formula. It is the spontaneous quality that rises to opportunity and to emergency. It is the great unseen force which carries us on in the face of almost certain defeat.

Coach John Irwin

HAVING ONLY one letterman back from last year's starting lineup, it was no surprise to the more rabid followers of the Dragon eleven that prospects looked very glum for a successful season. Alf Kennedy, who played a guard position last year, was switched to the backfield where he produced miracles.

Much credit goes to Captain Alf Kennedy, Ray Stefanik, Clark Swisher, Keith Winch, Chickie Griffin and Clarence Horensky in the backfield, while on the line praise goes to Brantner, Reiber, Nelson, McNerkey, Lavery, Shapiro, McGeary, Delbridge, Lipchik, and Special Credit belongs to Peter Elash, aggressive guard who by his splendid teamwork won a berth on the ALL CITY TEAM picked by the PITTSBURGH PRESS.

Coach Bob Irvin reports that prospects look very bright for a fruitful season next year.

SOCCER

THIS YEAR'S soccer team, coached by Mr. Irwin, won one game and lost seven.

While the record achieved did not show much on the winning side, yet the team showed promise for the future. The team was made up entirely of first year men; included on the team were Quantz, Jorgenson, Webb, Solomon and Tigue. Seymour Lefton was manager.

THE BOY, NOT THE GAME

FIFTEEN YEARS of coaching have proved to me that it is the boy, not the game, that counts. Basketball squads should be kept intact for the whole season. The squad, after proper selection has been made, should never be cut. A boy dropped from a squad loses his confidence.

In order to build team spirit and team morale a boy should profit by his mistakes. In case of a bad play, the teammates should encourage the offender to work harder. Spectators should not nag boys for making mechanical mistakes. Many boys have been ruined for team play by the constant nagging of coaches who do not know better. A kind word of encouragement in the right way will improve performance.

For the coming season the Allderdice basketball team members must subject themselves to hard work, strict discipline, and loyalty.

Coach Slessinger

GYMNASTICS

GYMNASTICS is a sport which has had a comparatively small following despite the fact that an efficiently working team presents one of the most remarkable exhibitions of precision and coordination that any sport can offer. It would be worthwhile if Allderdice could gather enough students who are interested in this type of sport.

This year Allderdice had a few members of the team place fairly well in city Gymnastics Championships. Jack Larkin led the Gymnastics in three city meets by placing first in two of them.

SENIOR SWIMMING

ALTHOUGH the swimming team this year was young and inexperienced it did fairly well. At the beginning of the season the team had to give away 16 points to the opposition for every meet because of the lack of divers and back-stroke swimmers. Back at their same positions for their third year were Edward Brenner and Jerome Zaslov. Bobby Ornitz led the field of swimmers for the season. About midway in the season Coach Gordon brought into the squad some sophomores who did very well and are expected to build the team up next year. Of these sophomores Joe Talachko, Goodman Landow, and Walter Lang stood out.

Near the end of the season Jerome Zaslov, Edward Brenner and Martin Ornitz were taken by Coach Gordon to Penn State College for the Pennsylvania State Championships. With the best swimmers of the state Jerome Zaslov placed fourth with only 5 yards difference between second and fourth. At Slippery Rock State Teachers College where the Inter-State Championships were held Jerome Zaslov placed first in the inter-state free style race.

The total of meets won were two; and the total lost were three.

TRACK TEAM

THE TRACK TEAM which was composed of regulars like Herbert Douglas and Robert Whiteside was handicapped by bad weather.

Tryouts brought out thirty boys. Next year Coach Gordon expects to build his team up of Juniors. Douglas and Whiteside graduate leaving only a few experienced tracksters.

WITH A combined program of athletic and social activities, the Senior Leaders enjoyed another year. Among the sports, basketball, volleyball and soccer were played in addition to other field activities and referee practice. The Leaders' social calendar for this season contained a greater number of events than ever before. A tea was given for the prospective members; the Junior Leaders were invited to a Kiddie Party; several roller skating and swimming parties were held; the boys' Senior Leaders Club and the Green Key were guests of the girls' Leaders. The highlights of the Leaders' activities, however, were the Senior Farewell parties at the close of each semester topped by the Annual Frolic at Schenley High School in the spring.

HOCKEY

FOR THE second year, the field hockey championship went to Helen De Paolo and her team. This year the champs almost met their match when they played Philomena Prosdocimo's team. In the final game, the contestants fought hard for an hour and a half with the winning goal made by Emily Toth. Not only did Helen's team win for the second year, but this year it had to win two games against Philomena for the final honors. The members of the winning team were: Helen De Paolo, captain; Betty Kasuta, Margaret Boone, Betty Nemenz, Sally McClean, Mary Belie, Gilda Cerra, Irene Connelly, Anna Sapira, Mildred Spichty, Emily Toth and Virginia Petronio.

JUNIOR LEADERS

The members of the Junior Leaders club have succeeded in carrying out their aim, which is to help the gym department function more smoothly. These girls, with their plans and ideas of success were chosen as officers for the first semester: Rosita Kerber, president; Ann Meyers, vice president; and Katherine Dice who not only had the duty of the Secretary-Treasurer, but also that of the chairmanship of the social committee.

Presiding in the club for this last semester were: Lucy Seibert, president; Frances Davis, vice president; Nancy Smith, secretary-treasurer; Betty Jane Fording, program chairman.

EAR MUFFS and red flannels were added to the soccer equipment last fall. So many girls had turned out for the tournament that the final games were played just before Jack Frost arrived; the field was kept open an extra two weeks by special permission from the Board of Education. Faithfully lasting through the cold 'til the very end of the tournament were Iris Kwall's team in the ninth grade contest and Iverne Cantle's team of tenth graders.

Both of these championship games were close. The ninth grade teams fought against a tie until the last minute when the goal keeper, heroically defending her goal, threw the ball right into Iris where it bounced off and over the line for the winning point. Besides Iris there were Rosita Kerber, Ann Toth, Christine Dorrance, Barbara Ackerman, Katherine Dice, Marion Smith, Winnie Morgan, Vera Goldspinner, Betty Cohen, Shirley Brinn, Shirley Norris and Marian Schein to share the honors. Iverne Cantle's team managed to win by a 2-0 score; her teammates were Peggy Able, Grace Beers, Nola Cantle, Peggy McNiff, Ida Routh, Martha Toweny, Virginia Packard, Ann Kalser, Vera Blythe, Hilda De Vincent and Esther Katz.

With a wild yell he sprang behind a chair, threw it madly to one side and flung himself under a table. For several minutes he lay there squirming. Then he dragged himself out, hitting his head on the table, and dashed across the room, diving over a divan. After a moment he crawled out from behind and stood up. "These ping pong balls certainly are hard to catch," he muttered.

Slips that Pass in the School

Rhoda Mae Landay—absent for a change.

Physical Geography class not overflowing.

John Sheppard—wanting to become an impresario.

Herbie Goodman—a crack analyst.

Doris Brennan—I. Q. 147.

Miriam Rosenbloom—hack writer.

Halleck—it slipped—how'd it get in?

Margie Palley—walking alone!

—other slips.

—hah! think we wanta be sued for libel!

I wish I were a little frog,
Preferably a cod,
Then I could sing and sing and sing—
—What rhymes with cod?

I am a little maggot
I squirm and squirm and squirm;
But nobody loves me
Because I am a worm!

Earle Cherkosly: "I suppose you think I'm a perfect idiot."

Teacher: "Oh, none of us is perfect."

Senior: "Transfer, please."

Conductor: "Where to?"

Senior: "Can't tell you. It's a surprise party."

Is he lucky? He took a penny to class the other day and made 97 on a true-false exam.

Give a girl an inch and she thinks she's a ruler.

DAY AND NIGHT SERVICE

Self Torture

Inconsequential hurts are from the world—
What others failed to do;
Real hurts are in the heart
Inflicted there by you.

Gossip

Think not of what others say—
They'd complain for spite;
Struggle on in your own way—
But first make sure you're right.

Ironic

Life is futile; life is sad;
And the cost of it's so dear;
Still it wouldn't be half bad
If we'd enjoy it while it's here.

Potentialities

Imprisoned deep within your heart
For you to set it free
Is some great talent waiting there
For your desire to be.

Self-respect

When others may complain and fret
What you forgot to do,
The only thing that really counts
Is your respect for you.

Befuddled

An excited person is like a befuddled cow—
Afraid of starvation, crops all the grass now.

Acknowledgments

To Miss Katherine McCamblay and the staff typists for their valuable assistance in the preparation of the material for publication.

To Mr. Joseph Fitzpatrick and the art students for creating the pictorial effects of the book.

To the periodical representatives of the home rooms for their invaluable aid in selling and distributing this book.

To Miss Rose Hartz and Miss Elizabeth Wagenknecht, together with the members of the casts and production staffs of the two class plays, for raising funds for the Journal.

To the Mayer Press, the Sissman Studio, and the Superior Engraving Company for their efficient construction of this, the 1940 Journal.

To our advertisers for their loyal support of the school and the book.
